Bios

Ocean Elliston (Sound Designer, Audio Engineer) is excited for his first time serving as audio engineer for the RPI Players's for the Pride Cabaret.

Joaquin Molinari* (Producer, Performer) was heavily involved in last year's Pride Cabaret since it's inception. From the initial talks with the UHQA, to directing the show, and performing as the MC. He's happy to see it get a second iteration, this time he is the producer as well as a performer. Joaquin is a Chemistry Master's student at RPI and is currently the Artistic Director of the RPI Players, having been with the company for nearly 5 years.

Danielle Za-Cara Pettway* (Performer) is an architecture student at RPI and has enjoyed being part of the RPI Players for the last couple of years. She is excited to be coming back to the Big Gay Picnic performing with the RPI Players again. She hopes you all enjoy the rest of the Pride Month and hopes you come to see the RPI Player's production of Arch After Hours! - a student-made comedy sketch show. Be slay, be gay!

Bios

Alex Wallach* (Stage Manager, Music Director) is excited to be returning as the stage manager and the music director for this year's Pride Cabaret after a yearlong series of unfortunate events kept him from participating in recent shows. He was the stage manager for last year's Pride Cabaret and has consistently been involved with lighting, even refurbishing the entire inventory last year, mostly alone. Alex is thrilled to be showcasing two songs from his favorite musical, The Theory of Relativity, at this cabaret and hopes that you are able to enjoy and connect with them as much as he does! He would like to remind the cast to project louder, match their vowels, float it, and listen to their practice tracks, but is so proud of how much they've grown as vocalists since day 1! He would also like to thank Dr. Whalen and Dr. Skovira for helping get this show together and enabling him to music direct it, Marte and Mariana for their support through tough times this spring, and his lovely property managers at Incite at Troy for heavily promoting this show!
